Additional History of Seventh Infantry.—The Seventh Infantry re-enlisted as Veterans at Pulaski, Tennessee, December 22, 1863, and was mustered in January 6, 1864, and left immediately for Illinois, to receive 30 days' furlough. Arrived at Springfield, January 18, 1864. Received an enthusiastic reception from the citizens. Quarters in Representatives Hall until next day, when furloughed. Reassembled Feb. 18, 1864, reinforced by 200 recruits. Left Camp Butler for Pulaski on the 23d, under command of Major Estabrook—Col. Rowett being in command of Camp Butler. Arrived at Pulaski Feb. 27, 1864, where the Regiment was mounted, and left for Florence, Alabama, 90 miles distant, to patrol the Tennessee river and watch Forrest's command, which were just leaving Tuscaloosa, Ala., on the memorable raid on Paducah and Fort Pillow. The Regiment was divided into three detachments. Four companies at Florence, two companies at Sweet Water, and four at Centre Star. On the morning of the 7th of May Gen. Roddy's rebel brigade crossed the Tennessee between Sweet Water and Centre Star and attacked the companies at Florence and Sweet Water. After 6 hours severe fighting against ten times their number, the companies were obliged to retire with a loss of 3 officers and 32 men wounded and captured. On the 13th of May the 7th returned with the 9th Ohio Cavalry and drove the rebels across the Tennessee, capturing a number of prisoners. Was engaged in patrolling the river until June 14th, when the Regiment was dismounted and ordered to report to the Brigade Commander at Rome, Georgia. Arrived at Chattanooga, Tennessee, on the 17th of June, and was ordered to Tilton, Georgia, to patrol the railroad from Dalton to Resaca, which was then threatened by rebel Cavalry. On July 7th was relieved by the 18th Wisconsin Infantry, and proceeded to Rome, Ga., and went into camp on the south side of Etowa river. On the 29th of July the non-Veteran officers and men were mustered out by reason of expiration of term of service. Capt. Hector Perrin was mustered as Lt. Colonel, and Capt. Edward S. Johnson as Major. On the 3d of October, 1864, the 4th Division, 15th Army Corps, (to which the 7th was attached) commanded by Gen. John M. Corse, was ordered to Allatoona Pass to assist in the defence of that important station, then threatened by Hood's army. The 3d Brigade, consisting of the 7th, 50th and 57th Illinois, and 39th Iowa, commanded by Col. Rowett, reached the Pass on the morning of October 4th. The railroad being destroyed after the passage of this Brigade, the rest of the Division failed to reach its destination. On the morning of the 5th the Pass was attacked by Gen. French's rebel Division, numbering six thousand men. The 7th, armed with the Henry rifle, (or 16 shooter), did gallant and fearful work—successfully repelling four separate charges made by the desperate and hungry enemy on the line occupied by them. Its torn and bleeding ranks told at what a fearful cost. Its colors, under which fell many a gallant bearer that day, were never lowered.

“Let its stained and tattered mass,
Tell the story of the terror and the glory
Of the battle of the Allatoona Pass.”

The brave Capt. Jack Sullivan and Adjutant Robinson fell mortally wounded. Col. Rowett was severely wounded in the head. Thirty-eight men were killed and sixty-seven wounded. The enemy lost two thousand two hundred killed and wounded, and, not able to stand against this gallant little band of defenders in the Pass, they fled, leaving this number on the field. The 7th, together with all those who as-isted in that gallant defense and glorious victory, won never fading laurels, and was highly complimented by the Division Commander and Gen. Sherman, who said: “For the numbers engaged, they stood upon the bloodiest battle field ever known upon the American continent.” After the battle the Regiment returned to Rome, and on the 12th of November, with their Corps, under command of Gen. John A. Logan, joined the Grand Army of Sherman at Kingston, Georgia, where preparations were being made for the “March to the Sea.” On the 21st of November the Regiment was remounted and detailed at the advance of the 15th Corps. On December 22d it entered with Sherman's victorious columns into Savannah. Then turning northward with the army, entered into the campaign of the Carolinas, participating in the battles of Saicahatchie Swamp, Bentonville and Columbia; then, after the surrender of Johnson's Army, marched homeward. Arrived at Alexandria, Virginia, May 17, 1865, and took part in the Grand Review at Washington; then ordered to Louisville, Kentucky, where, on the 9th of July, 1865, it was mustered out of the service and arrived at Springfield, July 11, where it was paid off and discharged.

History of Eighty-Seventh Illinois Infantry.—The Eighty-Seventh Infantry Illinois Volunteers was organized at Shawneetown, Illinois, on the 21th of August, 1862, and was mustered into the service of the United States, at the same place, on the 22d of September, 1862. While stationed at Shawneetown, the 87th made a number of scouts into Kentucky, which State was then infested by guerrilla bands and Adam Johnson's rebel cavalry. February 2, 1863, the Regiment moved to Memphis, Tennessee, arriving on the 4th, and went into camp three miles south-east of the city, where the Regiment performed picket duty. April 22, moved out with an expedition to Hernando, Mississippi, returning the 24th. While stationed at Memphis the Regiment was engaged in several scouts. May 10th, embarked on board transports for Vicksburg, Mississippi, and reached Young's Point on the 11th. On the 21st crossed the river at Warrenton, Mississippi, arriving in the rear of Vicksburg on the morning of the 23d, occupying (that day and the next) a position on the left of our line. On the 24th, part of the Regiment was ordered back to Warrenton, which post was guarded by them until the 24th of June, when the Regiment was assigned to the 3d Brigade, 4th Division, 13th Army Corps. Remained in the rear of Vicksburg until after its surrender. On the 5th of July, marched toward Jackson, Mississippi, and was engaged in the siege and operations around that city until its surrender, and returned to Vicksburg, arriving July 25, 1863. August 10th, embarked on transports and proceeded to Natchez, Mississippi, arriving on the 12th, and went into camp below the city. August 13th, marched towards Big Black River, and camped near Kingston. Returned to Natchez and embarked on transports for New Orleans, and debarked at Carrollton, La. The Regiment here remained in camp until the 13th of September, during which time the Regiment, together with the whole army stationed at that place, was reviewed by Gen. Grant. On the 13th of September crossed the river to Algiers, and moved by rail westward to Brashear City, on Berwick Bay, where it remained until the 23th, when the Regiment crossed Berwick Bay, and moved to Opelousas, arriving on the 23d of October. Counter-marched and returned to New Iberia, La., on the 1st of November, where it halted, having been detached from the Brigade. Was mounted by order of Gen. Banks, and placed under command of Gen. A. L. Lee, commanding the Cavalry of the Department of the Gulf. On the 8th marched to Vermilion Bayou, and was here assigned for duty in the 3d Cavalry Brigade, Department of the Gulf. On the 16th, returned to New Iberia, where the Regiment remained until January 2, 1864, when the Regiment fell back to Franklin, La. Went into winter quarters and remained until March 13, 1864. Took part in the Red River Expedition, under command of Gen. Banks. April 7, 1864, was engaged in the battle of Wilson's Plantation. April 8, 1864, was engaged in the battle of Mansfield, or Sabine Cross Roads. Returned to Grand Ecore, La., on the 16th. During the remainder of the campaign the Regiment took part in the battles of Cane River, Chaneyville, Alexandria, Marksville, Yellow Bayou, and the Blockade of Red River, and many minor engagements with the enemy. Arrived at Simmsport on the 16th of May. May 20, crossed the Atchafalaya river, and marched to the Mississippi, arriving the next day, where the Regiment remained during the summer, performing picket and scouting duty, capturing many prisoners, and being almost daily engaged with the enemy. On September 3, 1864, part of the Regiment embarked on transports for the mouth of White River, Arkansas, the remaining part being left for want of transportation. On the 16th, thirty-three of those remaining at Morganza were killed, wounded or missing, while on a scout near Williamsport, La., after a gallant resistance to a largely superior force of the enemy. On the 7th of November the remainder rejoined the Regiment. On the 4th of January, 1865, the Regiment embarked for Helena, Ark., and on the 7th went into camp, where the Regiment remained scouting up and down the river until the 7th of February, 1865, when with three days' rations the Regiment started on a march of 200 miles towards Jacksonport, Ark., thence north and east to Madison, on the St. Francis river, thence down that stream and the Mississippi to the camp at Helena, Ark. Remained on duty at Helena until the 16th of June, 1865, when mustered out of service by Capt. Newcomb. On the 21st embarked on transports. Arrived at Cairo June 23, thence by rail to Springfield, Illinois, arriving on the 24th, and was finally paid off and discharged July 3, 1865.
